5.1.2 Two Senior most teachers of the Department. The HOD/Coordinator at his/her discretion can co-opt subject matter specialist(s), if felt necessary. There will ordinarily be no external member.

(i) In case a course is not attached to a specific Department, the concerned Course Coordinator shall be the convener and two teachers teaching the course will be nominated by the concerned Dean as members. The Convener at his/her discretion can co-opt subject matter specialist(s) if felt necessary.

(ii) In case the number of teachers in Department/Centre/School is less than 3, the Dean of the concerned faculty shall nominate two senior most teachers involved in the teaching of the course, in addition to Head/ Coordinator, to fill the slots as defined in 6.2.2.

5.1.3 The Term of Office of a Board of Examiners shall be three years.

5.2 Code of Conduct

Any member/ convener of Board of Examiner will not participate in the proceeding of the meetings held for appointment of examiners in the paper(s) where his/her son/daughter or near relative is examinee or likely to be examinee, provided that in such eventuality, the remaining members will constitute the BoE with senior among them or Head of the Department functioning as Convener.

5.3 Reconstitution of the BoE

The Board of Examiners shall be reconstituted following the above rules by the concerned Head/ Coordinator as and when a vacancy arises under intimation to the Dean of the Faculty and the Controller of Examinations (CE).

5.4 Procedure and Conduct of Business

(i) The Convener shall preside at the meetings of the Board and shall be in-charge of the business which may be conducted by meetings or correspondence or both, as may be convenient.

(ii)	The meeting of the BoE should be convened well in advance so that its recommendation are received in the Office of the CE on or before the date scheduled in the Examination Calendar, of the University.
(iii)	In the event of an examiner not being able to fulfill his/her duties for cogent reasons, the Convener of the Board shall nominate other person in consultation with other members of the Board, a substitute.
6.0 Norms for Appointment of Evaluator(s)/ Co-Evaluators
6.1	For Evaluator of the bilingually papers only such persons should ordinarily be nominated who can evaluate the answer books in either of the languages. Normally paper setter shall evaluate the answer books
6.2	No person should be appointed as Examiner consecutively for more than 3 years for the same paper.
6.3	The number of answer books allotted to a single examiner should not exceed 150 in the case of post graduate examinations and 250 in case of under graduate examinations in each semester.
7.0 Code of Conduct for Examiners (Paper Setter/Evaluator/Co-evaluator)
7.1	The conduct of examination is an integral part of duty of a teacher and therefore, internal examiners shall not be permitted to refuse the examiner ship unless so exempted for cogent reasons by the Vice-Chancellor.
7.2	The Paper Setter will send the manuscript of question paper along with answer sheets in case of multiple types of questions.
7.3	Any teacher recommended as External/Internal Examiner by the Board of Examiners and approved by the Vice-Chancellor must submit a certificate before accepting their appointment that none of his/her son/daughter/other close relatives is an examinee in the said paper.
8.0 Setting of Question Paper
	The formal letter of appointment as Paper Setter will be issued by the Controller of Examinations in the prescribed format together with documents necessary for preparation of the question paper, viz, relevant portions of prospectus of study, last year's question paper, a form of acceptance and a remuneration bill form. Acceptance of the appointment and the manuscript of the question paper along with dully filled up remuneration bill form shall be submitted in the sealed prescribed cover to the Controller of Examinations within the date prescribed therefore.
9.0 Instructions to the Paper Setter
9.1	Questions must be set with relation to the prescribed course of study. It must conform to the standard and syllabi lay down by the relevant Ordinances of the University.

9.2	Each question shall be clear and well define in language as also in regard to the form and nature of the answers expected from the candidates. Questions shall not be beyond the standard prescribed and shall be fairly distributed over the whole course of study.
9.3	The papers shall be such as a candidate of decided ability and well prepared in the subject can reasonably be expected to answer completely within the allotted time. Question papers should generally follow the pattern for types of questions and choices as defined by the given faculty/department for a given course.
9.4	Paper-setter shall send detailed solution of each numerical question set by him/her along with the question paper.
9.5	Any "Direction to candidates" which may be thought necessary to be given regarding the answering of different sections in different answer-book or regarding the number of questions to be answered or the choice amongst them should be specific, precise and free from ambiguity.
9.6	Information regarding drawing sheets, graph papers, maps, table charts, calculators (of simple function type) and reference books, if any, to be permitted/supplied to the candidates, shall be mentioned in the question paper, and this information shall also be furnished to the Controller of Examinations, separately.
9.7	The Question paper is to be kept in the envelope meant for it. Further, this separate envelope containing solution of numerical Questions and the envelope containing Questions paper are to be kept in a big envelope super scribed "Confidential", and the same must be sent to the Convener of BOM for moderation following which all the moderated papers of a subject are sent to the Controller of Examinations in one bunch by the Head of Department.
10.0 Pattern of Question Papers at the End-semester/Final Examination:
10.1	The End-semester should in general cover the full syllabus for the course. The questions should be framed to elicit understanding, concepts, and analytical capacity of the examinee rather than only the information and memory power.
10.2	A general suggestive pattern of the question patterns, given in the following paragraphs may be followed. Individual courses, however, may modify the pattern, if required. However, these changes in the pattern may be defined and announced before the examination.
10.3	Duration of a theory paper of 3 or more credits should be of 03 hours. Courses that are of 2 Credits should of 02 hours duration. For technical Colleges it shall be as per its regulatory bodies.
10.4	Compulsory Question: Each question paper or section thereof should have the 1st question as compulsory and should cover 20%-30% of the full marks of that paper/section. The compulsory question must have parts that together generally cover all the units of the course/paper. The pattern of question paper shall be as follows:
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> i) Multiple choice questions (with at least four choices of which only one is correct), each of 02 marks and requiring justification for the choice in 1 or 2 lines. ii) True/false statements, each of 02 marks and requiring justification for the choice in 1or 2 lines. iii) definitions, 01 mark each iv) brief-answer questions, 2 marks each v) small numerical, 2 marks each vi) matching of terms in two columns (one of the columns should have at least one extra term) with 0.5 marks for each correct match

10.5	If there is more than one section in a given paper, each section will have its Compulsory question.
10.6	No. of Questions: The total number of questions and the number of questions to be answered in a question paper (including the compulsory question) may, in general, be as follows
<table><tr><th>No. of Credits for the Course</th><th>Total no. of questions</th><th>Total no. of questions to be answered</th></tr><tr><td>3 or 4 credits</td><td>7 or 8</td><td>5 or 6</td></tr><tr><td>2 credits</td><td>4 or 5</td><td>3 or 4</td></tr><tr><td>1 credit</td><td>3</td><td>2</td></tr></table>		No. of Credits for the Course	Total no. of questions	Total no. of questions to be answered	3 or 4 credits	7 or 8	5 or 6	2 credits	4 or 5	3 or 4	1 credit	3	2
No. of Credits for the Course	Total no. of questions	Total no. of questions to be answered
3 or 4 credits	7 or 8	5 or 6
2 credits	4 or 5	3 or 4
1 credit	3	2
In order to cover most of the prescribed content of the given course, each of the optional questions may have sub-sections of varying marks. Generally, the different sub-sections of a question should not be from the same topic/chapter and should not have any internal choices. One of the optional questions may require examinees to write short notes on defined topics; this question may have a limited internal choice. Marks/Credit for Technical College will be as per their regulatory body norms
11.0 Moderation of Question Paper
11.1	Board of Moderators There shall be a Board of Moderators (BOM) for each subject, consisting of the following, for the moderation of Question Papers: (i) Head of Institution. (ii) A person with specialized knowledge of the subject, but other than the paper setter, nominated by the Convener. Provided further that the members of Board of Moderators will not participate in the proceeding of the meetings held for moderation of paper(s) where their son/daughter or near relative is examinee or likely to be examinee, provided that in such eventuality, the remaining members will constitute the Board of Moderators with senior among them functioning as Convener.
11.2	Functions of the Board of Moderators The Board of Moderators shall have following functions:
11.2.1	To ensure that questions have been properly framed and they meet the pattern formulated and standard required.
11.2.2	To check the entire question paper particularly with reference to the following points:
(i)	Title and Code No. of the question paper and course/semester to which it relates.

(ii)	Maximum Marks of the question papers and as to whether the sum of marks of the number of questions to be answered matches with the total marks.
(iii)	Whether the questions represent the prescribed syllabus and if any of the questions are out of syllabus?
(iv)	Whether the pattern of question conforms to the prescribed/recommended pattern?
(v)	Whether Figures and notations are properly drawn/ numbered?
(vi)	Whether permission or otherwise for using calculators is appropriately mentioned?
11.3	Powers of the Board: The Board is authorized to make any corrections/alteration/addition/including change of content of the question(s) proposed by the paper setter if required.
12.0 Examination Schedule
12.1	The examination schedule for end semester examinations for various Certificates/UG & PG courses shall be finalized at least one month before the date of commencement and shall be proposed by the Dean or his authorized representatives for UG courses and HOD/Coordinator concerned in respect of PG courses.
12.2	All admit cards, after proper checking, shall be made available to examinees through the concerned Head/Dean either physically or as soft copy on confirmation of having attained the required percentage of attendance in respect of regular students. Ex-students should either download the admit card or can collect it in hard copy from the Office of the Controller of Examinations at least 03 days before the commencement of the examinations.
13.0 Guidelines to Centre Superintendents and Invigilators
13.1	Centre Superintendents and Invigilators shall be appointed by the Dean of the concerned Faculty (for under-graduate course examinations) and Head/Coordinator of the Department/School/Centre (for post-graduate courses) for conducting each theory paper. Invigilation is integral part of the teaching duty and cannot be refused on the ground that it is remunerative. All faculty members must be assigned duty on an equitable basis in the examination hall as invigilator except when otherwise permitted by the competent authority. There shall be minimum one invigilator for every 25-30 examinees, subject to a minimum of 02 invigilators in each room even if the number of candidates is less than 50-60 in the room. One Centre Superintendent will be appointed for each Centre where a given theory course is being examined.
13.2	Duty of the Invigilators is not to allow any opportunity to the examinees to use unfair means. Reports made about the use of unfair means should be complete in all respects including the statement of the examinee(s) and must bear the signature of Invigilators as also the Centre Superintendent of the examination on duty.

13.3	Invigilators are required to check the examinees at the main entry of the Examination Halls/Rooms in presence of the security staff and be vigilant thereafter in the Examination Hall throughout the period of examination.
13.4	The Superintendent of Examination/Invigilator/Proctor can call the security staff in the Examination Hall at their discretion, if a situation so demands.
13.5	The Proctor can call Police in the Examination Hall at his/her discretion, if a situation so demands.
13.6	The Invigilators should remain careful and vigilant regarding the issue of supplementary answer-books to examinees to avoid any malpractice by the examinees in the use of such answer-books. Invigilators will count the number of supplementary answer books issued to a candidate, sign each supplementary answer book and also make an entry on the cover page of the main answer book about the cumulative number of Supplementary answer books issued and keep an account of the supplementary answer books, fill up the statement slip supplied for this purpose and return the same to the Office of the Controller of examinations duly signed at the end of examination.
13.7	After the examination is over, the invigilators should serialize the answer scripts, count them as per the number of students signing on the Roster and hand them over through Superintendent to the representative of the Dean/Head or representative of the Controller of Examinations as per the prevailing guidelines at that time.
13.8	Superintendents and Invigilators kept on the Reserve List are requested to come and report to the Chief Superintendent half an hour before the commencement of examination.
13.9	No invigilator will absent himself/herself from duty without the prior approval of the Director/Dean/Principal taken in writing ordinarily a day in advance of the leave applied for, under intimation to Centre Superintendent.
