MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

PREAMBLE

In order to contribute to the society through pursuit of education, learning and research at the highest international level of excellence and to impart quality legal education with the aim to produce legal professionals to enrich and serve the system of administration of justice of our country the Chanakya National Law University, Patna (hereinafter referred to as "CNLU", Patna) and the Gopal Narayan Singh University, Sasaram (hereinafter referred to as "GNSU", Sasaram) agreed to sign this Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) as a framework for facilitating mutually beneficial collaborative activities.

The CNLU, PATNA established under the Chanakya National Law University Act, 2006 (Bihar Act No. 24 of 2006), included under Section 2(f) of the UGC Act, 1956, situated at Patna. Being the 'People's University' with an aspiration to provide quality legal education which is socially relevant, is the first party.

The GNSU, SASARAM, established on 15th June, 2018 under the Bihar Private University Act, 2013, duly approved by the UGC, situated in South Bihar, Sasaram at the bank of river Sone with a sustainable campus is the second party.

The GNSU, Sasaram, being the fastest growing private University in the State of Bihar and after excelling in various discipline such as medicine its allied courses, Management etc. had initiated the establishment of Faculty of Law, naming it as Narayan School of Law with an aim to impart quality legal education. Narayan School of Law is currently imparting five year integrated courses of B. A., LL.B. (Hons.), B.B.A., LL.B. (Hons.) along with traditional three years LL.B., two years LL.M. course and hopefully Ph.D. (Law) in the near future. .

The mode of admission in Narayan School of Law is the Entrance Test conducted by the University every year and also by sharing CLAT score on the basis of executing MoU with Consortium of National Law Universities.

SCOPE OF AGREEMENT

The collaborative activities will focus to promote academic excellence in the field of Law and Social Sciences and that will encompass exchange of students and members of faculty between two parties as well as other academic, research and publication activities. In addition to this active efforts will be made to develop joint training and research programmes in a collaborative spirit which will include the following areas:

I. TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF COOPERATION

1. The CNLU and GNSU shall collaborate in mutually agreeable academic events, teaching, training and research, wherever feasible. Such collaboration will be based on mutually agreeable terms and conditions specifically agreed for each of the collaborative efforts;
2. The CNLU and GNSU shall offer full time regular as well as optional courses to under-graduate and post- graduate courses offered at these institutions from time to time on mutually agreeable terms and conditions as per the University Grants Commission regulations;
3. The Ph.D. candidates in interdisciplinary areas of research involving law from the CNLU shall work under the supervision of the faculty members of GNSU or if agreed, jointly supervised by the faculty members from both the parties;
4. Faculty members from each university shall be invited for important seminars, conferences and for teaching. The financial implications shall be worked out on case to case basis;
5. Those modalities for a similar exchange of researchers and faculty members will be laid down through mutual discussion, that should be made operational for a period of five years;
6. Ph.D. Scholars of both the Universities may make use of permissible library resources of each other and to have academic interaction with the faculty;
7. Research Scholars and Teaching Faculty of both The CNLU and GNSU will explore possibility of taking up collaborative research work and also apply for funding from national and international agencies, governments and other funding agencies.
