Secretary's Message

The students of Bihar have so far remained deprived of world-class education in their home state. Migration has also been an unfortunate crisis which they have been facing in their quest for quality education and career opportunities. In the beginning, it was extremely important for us to change the mindset of people who believed in nothing could be done in an area like this. The infrastructure had to be built and law & order issues were also there. However, we were extremely clear with our vision of providing affordable and world-class learning ecosystem here to attract talents from all areas. We started working on the challenges and slowly, with dedication and hard work, we achieved success. Presently our ambition is to provide affordable and value-based education for holistic development of students, educators and researchers for overall growth.

The university has highly qualified faculty in their respective fields of expertise. A large number of national and international conferences, seminars and workshops are regularly organized by the university. Such events provide a variety of experiences to the students and inculcate skills such as leadership and team spirit which are helpful in their career. Our faculty members have been able to publish good quality research work in high impact factor journals of repute. There is an active interaction between faculty and students in the campus.

We always believe that the efforts of our students need to be in the right direction in order to be successful and that is why we provide the best of curriculum, innovative teaching methodology, state-of-the-art infrastructure, the latest in technology, hand-picked international collaborations & tie-ups and the expertise of academic stalwarts and industry doyens.

At GNSU, we have set for ourselves a high benchmark, not just in terms of academic standards, but also in transparency, accountability and governance.

I am quite confident that the University will soon transform itself to the state of a world class academic institution. After joining this university you would find a wealth of learning opportunities in a vibrant campus that would serve as an essential stepping stone to a fulfilling life and career.

Farm Visit & Educational tour

Students had visited the seed processing units of Bihar Rajya Beej Nigam, Kudra, Bihar on 19 October and 16 November 2022, as a part of their course curriculum under Principles of Seed Technology.

Details of the Research Activities and Initiatives

Research Programmes - Front Line Demonstrations (FLDs) On Rapeseed & Mustard:

Narayan Institute of Agricultural Sciences are committed to empowering farmers with the latest agricultural practices and technologies. As part of our outreach efforts, we conducted Field Level Demonstrations (FLDs) on Rapeseed & Mustard during Rabi-2022-23 in the support of ICAR-DRMR, Bharatpur, Rajasthan at farmers field, aiming to showcase innovative techniques and solutions to enhance agricultural productivity and sustainability. These demonstrations serve as a platform for farmers to learn, adopt, and adapt new practices that can significantly improve their farm operations. The total amount sectioned for conducting of this FLDs was Rs. 1.2 lacs.

Key Objectives

- Knowledge Transfer: The primary objective of our FLDs program was to facilitate the transfer of knowledge and skills from our experienced agricultural experts to farmers. Our Institute had supplied improved seeds of Rapeseed & Mustard (Variety Giriraj & DRMR-1165-40) procured from DRMR, Bharatpur to targeted farmers from 21 villages of Rohtas district. We aim to bridge the gap between scientific research and on-ground implementation by showcasing practical demonstrations of cutting-edge agricultural techniques.
- Hands-on Learning: Our FLDs provided farmers with hands-on learning opportunities, allowing them to observe and understand the implementation of various agricultural practices (like time of sowing, optimum seed rate, fertilizer dose, time of fertilizer application, timely irrigation, appropriate pesticides application for control of diseases and insect pest) and firsthand information regarding application of Sulphur in cultivation practices of Rapeseed & Mustard. Through interactive sessions and demonstrations, farmers gained practical insights into the correct usage of modern tools, machinery, and inputs.
- Technology Adoption: We promoted the adoption of advanced agricultural technologies by showcasing their benefits through FLDs. By introducing farmers to improved seeds of Rapeseed & Mustard (Giriraj & DRMR-1165-40) provided by ICAR-DRMR, Bharatpur, Rajasthan), precision farming techniques, efficient irrigation methods, and crop management practices, we aim to enhance their understanding and encourage technology-driven farming practices.
- Yield Enhancement: Our FLDs focused on demonstrating practices that can lead to higher crop yields of Rapeseed & Mustard in farmers field. We showcase the effective utilization of fertilizers, crop protection measures, and optimized irrigation techniques to help farmers achieve better yields and profitability. The demonstrations also highlight post-harvest management and storage techniques to minimize losses and preserve the quality of agricultural produce.
- Sustainability and Environmental Conservation: We prioritize sustainable agricultural practices during our FLDs. By showcasing techniques like organic farming, integrated pest management, soil health management, and water conservation methods, we encourage farmers to adopt eco-friendly practices that safeguard the environment while maintaining farm productivity.
- Empowering Rural Communities: Through FLDs, we aim to empower rural communities by equipping farmers with the necessary knowledge and skills to make informed decisions about their farming practices. We provide them with resources, guidance, and ongoing support to ensure the successful implementation of demonstrated techniques and technologies.

Impact and Success Stories:

Our Institute hope that over the years, our FLDs will made a significant impact on the agricultural landscape. We have witnessed farmers adopting new practices and technologies, resulting in improved crop yields of Rapeseed and Mustard, reduced input costs, and enhanced farm profitability. Numerous success stories have emerged, with farmers sharing their experiences of increased income, improved livelihoods, and a transformed farming ecosystem.

Partnerships and Collaborations

To ensure the success of FLDs program, DRMR, Bharatpur collaborated with our Institute, various stakeholders, including agricultural research institutions, government agencies, industry experts, and NGOs. These partnerships allow us to access the latest research, expert guidance, and financial support, enabling us to organize impactful and sustainable FLDs.

NIAS committed to supporting farmers in their pursuit of agricultural excellence. Through our Field Level Demonstrations (FLDs), we provide farmers with the knowledge, skills, and resources necessary to embrace innovative practices and technologies. By empowering farmers, we aim to contribute to the growth, sustainability, and prosperity of the agricultural sector and uplift rural communities as a whole.

(ii) Mustard – Green Gram

12. Specify pests and disease situations: Mustard Aphid and Powdery Mildew

13. Farmers' opinion about the improved technology (Feedback):

Farmers are very satisfied and gave positive feedbacks. They expressed their happiness and told that these two varieties of mustard i.e. Giriraj and DRMR-1165-40 performed much better than the traditional varieties they were cultivating since long. The comparative study revealed that both these varieties were found to be superior in terms of seed vigour, seed yield and oil contents. Farmers also appreciated the quality of seeds provided for the FLDs. Farmers further added that between the two varieties used, Giriraj was greater in its performance than DRMR-1165-40. As per recommendations, farmers who applied sulphur and followed line sowing method, were convinced with benefits and from now onwards they are willing to adopt the same practices for mustard crop.

Placement Details

Placement is the first thing that comes to the mind of students before taking admission to private institutes or universities. Like other colleges and universities, Narayan Institute of Agricultural Sciences (NIAS) was in continuous efforts to contact with various companies in Bihar and other states of India for getting final year students of NIAS placed well.

Internship Opportunities: Emphasize the availability of internship opportunities for students. Total 12 numbers of final year students got selected for internship at an Agro-based industry Agro-Star located at Pune, Maharashtra. Placement cell talks about tie-ups with companies and organizations that offer internships to enhance students' skills and increase their employability.

Library Development

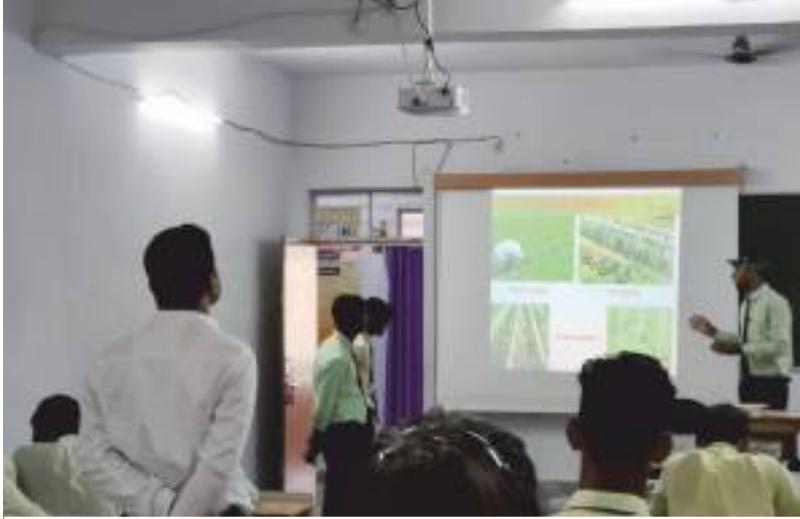

This institute is well-equipped with a well maintained, beautifully organized library. The library contains multiple numbers of books of all the subjects taught here. Alongside the course hours, every week carries three hours for library visit for the students of all courses. Different teachers are allotted to provide correct guidance in the library. Students have the access to issue three books at a time for two weeks followed by submission and reissuance. Next to the library hall, a study room has been constructed for the students to read and group discussion. They are also encouraged to prepare notes by themselves with the help of books. The overall scenery of the library and study room reminds us of Sarah J. Mass who said, "Libraries were full of ideas - perhaps the most dangerous and powerful of all weapons."

The institute's library is located in the institute campus just near the computer hall having a big reading hall to support and make available reading materials to the undergraduate and postgraduate students, Ph.D. scholars, teacher's and scientists. It has been observed that about 100 students on an average consult the library each day. The library is kept open from 09.00 am to 5.00 pm every day.

- The institutional Library has 1144 books covering all the subjects of Agricultural Sciences such as General Agriculture; Agricultural Economics; Agronomy; Animal Husbandry and Dairying; Entomology and Agricultural Zoology; Extension Education; Farm Engineering; Genetics and Plant Breeding; Horticulture; Mycology and Plant Pathology; Plant Physiology; and Soil Science and Chemistry.
- The Library of NIAS subscribes the local Hindi and English newspapers on a daily basis for making the students updated with general knowledge.
- Number of Books Acquired during the year: The details of the purchased books for the last two years are -2212
